Youthful Humane Group Looks Out For Pets

CHARTER MEMBERS—Here is a group of boys and girls who got together recently and formed a real public service organization, the Be Kind to Animals Club. In the first few weeks of the club's existence, members have found homes for three dogs that might otherwise have been impounded, have brought injured dogs to veterinary hospitals for treatment, and have returned pets that were lost to their owners. Sponsor of the organization, Alice Van Over ,is shown second from the left in the top row. The club has been meeting in the home of Mrs. Van Over, 205 Woodrow street, but needs a clubhouse or other meeting place badly.

CITY COUNCIL ASKS BOARD OF SUPERVISORS TO EXTEND WHITE ST.

Routine Business Quickly Disposed At Short Meeting

A resolution requesting the county board of supervisors to extend and develop White street, between 87th street and the Alemany cut-off, was the main item of business at the regular meeting of the city council Monday night at the city hall. Running north and south, White street would be the only lateral street connecting Broadmoor Village and Daly City's new Westlake subdivision, with the exception of Skyline boulevard and Junipero Serra boulevard. Improvement of the street is required for fire protection and school uses, as well as for a general traffic artery.

Mayor Paul Green, with Councilmen Melford Battye, Fred Bertetta and Edward J. Mooney, disposed of routine business in a relatively short meeting. They granted a request for the opening of a pet and garden store at 6277 Mission street, but deferred action on an application for a mobile ice cream route until they could investigate the proposition. James Jenkinson, the petitioner, requested permission to operate the truck, selling "Swell Time" ice cream products, on city streets between 9 a.m. and 10 p.m., using a public address system for music. The council will rule on the matter this week.

Second readings on three ordinances were heard, and all were approved without a dissenting vote. They included a measure adjusting electrical installation permit fees, adjusting building permit fees and abandonment of certain easements in Westlake subdivision.

A payment of $6,500 to the Stonecrest Corporation for water mains which were installed in Edgewood Terrace three years ago, was approved, leaving a balance of approximately $6,898 for the next fiscal year.

The council set Monday, March 28, as the date for a hearing on the proposed annexation of portions of blocks 22 and 23, Abbey Homestead Association, which annexation has been requested by Sterling Building Corporation, to make room for additional homes in Hillside Manor.

Upon request by Julius Castelan, of the Democratic County Central Committee, the council agreed to adopt a resolution at its next meeting, favoring establishment of a separate post office in Daly City. Mayor Green reported that he had attempted such a move some time ago, but at that time the Federal Works program had been indefinitely deferred to release materials for housing.

Frank Lombardi Opens New Garage

An invitation to visit his new garage on 2 Hillside boulevard has been extended to the public by Frank Lombardi, owner of Lombardi's Auto Service at 6498 Mission street.

Complete body work, overhauling and painting will be done in the new, up-to-date garage. Why don't you drop in and see it?

County Executive Sees Possibility Of Saving $100,000

With the possibility of saving $100,000 County Executive Frederick Peterson has asked the board of supervisors to approve the building of the county's TB facilities adjacent to Community Hospital in San Mateo.

Just last year the county voters approved construction of such a building at the Canyon sanitarium west of Redwood city in a bond issue amounting to $1,500,000.

In voting on the bond issue residents were asked to chose a site. Their choice was the Canyon Sanitarium.

Those attending the concert are urged to come early, as latecomers will be seated during intermission only. Show time is 8 p.m.

A reception for the guest artist will be held immediately following the concert.

NEW DE SOTO MAKES DEBUT THIS SATURDAY

Elaborate preparations for the first public showing of the new De Soto cars on Saturday, March 5, were announced today by James E. Donahue, De Soto-Plymouth dealer, 6232 Mission street.

The beautiful cars are now arriving and will be shown for the first time at 10 a.m. on Saturday, March 5. Donahue said his place of business will be open until 10 p.m. Saturday night and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Sunday.

"The cars are even more beautiful than we expected," Mr. Donahue said. "Many millions of dollars went into the complete improvement of these De Sotos and they show it. Our slogan is 'The car designed with you in mind' and that expresses exactly what these cars are.

"There is more beauty, more comfort, more convenience, and more safety built into these De Sotos than any car we've ever seen. I know the public is going to enjoy seeing them Saturday and thereafter."

The cars have a longer wheelbase, so that passengers ride cradled between the axles, yet overall length has been slightly reduced. Seats are much wider, yet over-all width of the car is less. No headroom has been lost, yet over-all height has been reduced. Legroom has been increased.

The result is a car that is far roomier inside, where space is needed, yet easier to park, garage and handle in traffic because of elimination of unnecessary bulkiness outside.

The De Sotos have clean, flowing lines and a long, low look, accenuated by handsome chrome trim that also protects fenders and body from scrapes and dents. Fenders can be quickly removed for economical repair and are designed so that tires may be changed and chains put on with ease.

Visibility has been increased all around the car. There is 24 per cent more glass area in the windshield alone and improved, noiseless electric wipers sweep 44 per cent more windshield area. The V-type windshield of uncurved glass provides full vision without distortion, an added safety factor, and windshield replacement is far less costly than other types.

Other safety factors include the grouping of all instrument panel controls within instant reach of the driver; "black lighting" of control dials to eliminate glare; better hydraulic brakes; improved, easier steering; and new mounting of shock absorbers for better lateral control.

Homes Will Be Ready By June 1 States Doelger

Dedication ceremonies at Lake Merced and Alemany boulevards for WESTLAKE, Henry Doelger's newest and greatest home development were held on Thursday. This new 800-acre town and country development will be one of the largest in the United States and will contain 5,000 detached dwellings, including some six-story apartment buildings, complete business district and recreational area. When complete, WESTLAKE will represent a value of close to 110 million dollars and is the largest home development ever planned in the San Francisco Bay area by an indivdual builder.

"WESTLAKE will be a beautiful self-contained city," Doelger said, "where residents can work, live and enjoy their leisure hours. We have plans for 4600 single-family units, 300 duplex units and 25 six-story apartment buildings. There will be neither poles nor wires of any kind in the street area, for all utility crossings will be underground. A dedicated 10-foot strip will be planted in trees and shrubbery bordering Alemany boulevard between Junipero Serra and Skyline boulevards.

"The business district which will cover 40 acres — with provision for adequate parking area — will be as modern and fine as any in the country. Land already has been designated for schools and churches, and the part planned as a recreational area will include playgrounds and complete facilities for all sports.

"Work will start immediately on our first unit of 680 single-family homes," Doelger continued. "We plan to have homes ready for occupancy by the middle of June. These will be in the moderate price class — available under G. I. financing and also F. H. A. terms."

WESTLAKE'S first homes will be both two and three-bedroom dwellings, with all the latest modern easy-housekeeping features. Plans call for a furnished model home to be opened at the time of completion of the first homes.

"You might say," Doelger said, "our entire development lies within one of the nation's finest ready-made recreational areas.

Lake Merced, a natural lake with boating and fishing joins WESTLAKE. Four golf and country clubs —three private and one public—all but surround this home development. They include the Olympic Club course, S. F. Golf and Country Club, Lake Merced Golf and Country Club and the Harding Municipal Golf Course. Bordering WESTLAKE along the ocean are 30 acres of beach frontage, property of the San Mateo County 'Recreational District. At some future time this land undoubtedly will be developed into a recreational beach. There are also numerous horse trails and privately owned riding stables adjacent to WESTLAKE.

There is a tree-covered 10-acre park in approximately the center of WESTLAKE. The city of Daly City already has an option for its purchase and development. Doelger's plans include the building of a community center there.

Guests at WESTLAKE'S dedication included representatives of the Federal Housing Administration, the Bank of America, Veterans Administration, Associated Home Builders, officials of Daly City and members of the press. DeWitt McGinnis, district director of Federal Housing Administration, Milton Morris, secretary of the Associated Home Builders, James Paul Green, mayor of Daly City, and Henry Doelger spoke briefly.

At the conclusion of the ceremonies, Mr. Doelger was host to the more than 60 guests at luncheon at Lakeside.

Deputy Sheriffs Seize Slot Machines On Bayshore Blvd.

Deputy sheriffs last Friday evening made a surprise raid on "George's Log Cabin" a Bayshore boulevard resort located directly on the county line, half in San Francisco and half in San Mateo county. The deputies seized four slot machines; one a 25 cent machine, one dime, and the other two, nickel machines.

Deputy Paul Jensen, dressed in civilian clothing located the machines in a small room behind the orchestra, and played three dimes, obtaining $1.40. Immediately Deputies John Hosford and Everett Heagney entered and confiscated the machines.

A survey will be made to determine whether the machines were in the San Mateo county or the San Francisco county portion of the building which is on both sides of the county line.

NEWS FROM THE SCHOOLS

JEFFERSON

The first grade, room 5, enjoyed still films of some of their favorite story-book characters last week. Jack and the Bean Stalk, Cinderella and Puss in Boots were some of the stories portrayed. During the language period Wanda Thiessen, Geraldine Franzoia, Jack Nord and Bill Park told the stories the pictures had depicted.

There is a heated contest being conducted among the students in the high first grade. The girls in room 4 are competing against the boys to see which of them can learn the most new words, names of numbers and colors and the letters of the alphabet. So far the boys are leading by one point.

The high second grade is deeply interested in their current study about caterpillars and butterflies. The students are making drawings of the fascinating life cycle of the butterfly, and are watching real-life displays with interest.

A "moving" picture has occupied the third grade recently. Reversing the usual procedure, they are "producing" the picture themselves. One of their favorite stories, "The Runaway Trees," is being reproduced, with pictures and text, on a roller which transforms the series of pictures into a "motion" picture. The children are enjoying this new experience in language.

A "Hobby" display has been of great importance to the fourth grade recently. Each pupil in the class had some hobby to describe. Although the nature of some of the avocations made it impossible to bring examples into the classroom, each child has had an opportunity to tell about his hobby. Nancy Golobie offered a collection of coins for display; Roberta Banducci a crocheted jacket; Edith Detweiler a collection of shells; Fred Lahr a group of clay figurines. Model airplanes, busses and tractors, pictures, dolls, petrified wood, rock collections and many other articles were among those exhibited.

CROCKER

A most inspiring and effective talk was given the Crocker student body by Superintendent Snell, when he attended the inauguration assembly. Mr. Snell complimented the group on its privilege of governing itself by its own elected officers and then proceeded to tell them the important privilege and responsibility which they had in being able to participate in the formulation of their own rules of government.

Supplementing this statement the superintendent emphatically stressed the obligation of individuals or a minority group to abide by the decision of the majority, until such time as this minority could make the majority feel its ideas, which varied from those of the majority, were for the good of the greater number in the group. This basic fundamental idea, the stalwart foundation of a democratic way of life made the group appreciate more fully that minority unrest and dissatisfaction regarding a majority's decision wasn't and could never be — democracy in action!

An effort to further instill democratic ideals and confidence were brought to the attention of the Crocker student body as they held their regular semi-annual assembly for the installation of student body officers. To lend prestige to the inauguration Superintendent Snell was asked by President-elect Shirley Filippo, H8 student, to lead the pledge to the flag. Following the salute the student body officers were introduced by President Filippo:

Vice-president, Joe Lewkowitz; secretary, Pauline O'Connor; treasurer, Miriam Villalba; school representatives, Margaret Moore and Harry Miller; sergeants-at-arms, Phyllis Rather and Bob Gerhow; school pianist, Andy Vranich.

The student council, composed of a boy and girl representative from each room were then presented to the student body, given the newly adopted constitution and charged with acquainting their classes with the articles therein. The assembly closed with the school pianist, Andy Vranich, playing the "Star-Spangled Banner," sung by the Crocker student body. President Filippo thanked the superintendent for attending the ceremonies and dismissed the students in orderly fashion to their rooms. Student government has been in force in the Crocker School for a period of years and it is reported by the principal and teachers that student participation in accepting responsibility and formulating regulations, under teacher guidance is a dynamic force in education for living—tomorrow!

The new student council from the rooms of the school include: Room 6, Elaine Martinez and Tom Haslett; room 5, Lois Pera and George Spoulos; room 4, Ruth Dean and Billy Willers; room 3, Jacqueline Hansen and Billy Johnson; room 2, LaVerne Garner and Robert Grubb.

The thrift banner is being proudly displayed by the L5-H5 grade.

Some effective all-over designs to be used for book covers are engaging the interest of the H5-L6 grade. Another activity engaged in this past week during the music period was individual participation by students — playing the piano and singing.

The study of Europe seems to hold special interest for the L7-H7 group, as the ancestors of most of the students came from this continent. The individual study of Greece and Italy will be intensely studied for the present, since the geographical features of the continent of Europe has been covered, thus giving the group as background for further research.

The L8-H7 feels it is learning that democracy means a government for all and not for just a few, and that liberty ends where the other fellow's rights begin. The group is also realizing a sense of satisfaction, as many have become very proficient in the first two steps in percentage, known academically as type one and type two.

Daly City Nucoa 'Bowl Mix' Week at Grocery Stores

The Right Way To Mix Margarine

Pictured above is a Best Foods Co. demonstrator showing the correct way to mix margarine. Called the "bowl-mix" method, the task of coloring white margarine is completed within a few seconds without streaks or blotches if the mixing is done properly. Grocers in Daly City are offering a special price to customers who buy two pounds of Best Food's margarine, Nucoa, at a time. They are featuring the slogan "Eat High, Spend Low with Nutritious Nucoa."

Jefferson Five Win "B" Division Play Friday Night

The speedy Jefferson basketball quintet won the "B" division of the Jefferson Elementary school district basketball tournament last Friday night when they downed the Perpetual Help team by a score of 22 to 8 in the Jefferson high gymnasium.

The Jefferson Buzz Bombs took an early lead which they maintained throughout the game despite the valiant efforts of the Perpetual Help club.

Coach Don Paganini's champion "B" squad is as follows: Bobby McDonald, Harry Youtsery, Herbert Frost, Robert O'Rocchi, Joseph Bocci, Al Tigone, Lowell Creighton, Freddy Bertetta, Albert Lagomarsino, Frank Bortoli.

Frank Donofrio, Dan Savage, Ernest Gray, Angelo Squeri, George Burbani, George Schreiber and Mike Laramie make up the Our Lady of Perpetual Help team.

SUPERVISORS REJECT CHANGE IN FIESTA SET-UP

A proposal to take over the major responsibility for financial success of the annual fiesta from the County Fair association directors was rejected early this week by the board of supervisors. The proposal also included taking over responsibility for any liability arising out of the show's operation.

Three supervisors present at an afternoon session concerning the fiesta, turned the proposal down. "The fiesta is a private venture and responsibility for success of its operation rests with the fair association," stated Supervisor Edward R. McDonald.

Supervisor Martin Poss, also a member of the fair directorship, refrained from voting on the issue. He asserted that the board's failure to renew its contract with the association had tied up use of the half-million dollar main pavilion, completed last year, for winter basketball and other sporting events, it was planned to stage there.

Fifty-two Guests Attend "Fly-up" Of Girl Scout Troop

Monday of this week at the Peoria street scout house, Girl Scout Troop No. 1 was hostess to 52 guests, the occasion being a brownie fly-up.

The ceremony was started with formation of brownie circles by brownies of Troops 7 and 11; and formation of horseshoes by Scout Troop No. 1. The presentation of the flags was by Esther Larson, carrying the American flag; Claudet Covell, Girl Scout troop flag, and Karen Savage with the brownie flag. The pledge of allegiance was led by Scout Sharon Bradley.

Linda McArdle began the fly-up by saluting her brownie leader, Mrs. Dorothy Kramer, and co-leader Mrs. Dorothy Carr, and repeating the brownie promise for the last time. She received her brownie wings from Mrs. Kramer and was started on her way. Wings were also presented to Carol Landgren, Sonya Thorne, Carol Morris by Mrs. Madeline Anderson, leader of Brownie Troop No. 11 and co-leaders Mrs. Thelma Holcomb and Mrs. Bruna McKenna.

The new scouts were then escorted to the leaders of Troop No. 1, Mrs. Wanda Michelsen, Mrs. Margaret Prescott, and Mrs. Mary Larson. The Girl Scout salute and promise were made and each girl was asked to give two Girl Scout laws. Girl Scout trefoils were presented as follows: Linda McArdle, to Mrs. Mary Larson; Sonya Thorne to Mrs. Margaret Prescott; Carol Landgren to Mrs. Wanda Michelsen; and Carol Morris to Mrs. Larson.

The ceremony ended with each troop repeating their respective promises.

Singing games led by Patricia Michelsen and Edith Prescott and "Stop and Go" with Mrs. Larson calling the signals provided entertainment until refreshments were served. Refreshments of punch by Troop No. 7, ice cream by Troop No. 11, and home made cookies by the Rainbow and Butterfly patrols of Troop No. 1 were served to the following honor guests: Mrs. C. Barnes, visiting leader from South San Francisco; Mrs. William Morris, Mrs. A. McArdle, Mrs. C. Bradley, Mrs. Thorne, Miss June Prescott and Miss LaVerne Nagle, visiting Senior Scouts from Troop No. 4.

Assisting in the ceremony were Brownies Adalia Bautista, Janet Mosley, Vicki Bergera, Karen Savage, Deanna Taylor, Diane Woods, and Alfreda Runge; also Phyllis Blackburn and Marilyn Pottinger, scouts second class of the Kangaroo Patrol.

Removing Onion Odors

A little dry mustard or salt rubbed on the hands and then rinsed off will remove onion odors. To remove onion or fish odors from pans in which those and other odiferous foods have been cooked, wash the pans in hot soapy water to which one or two tablespoons of vinegar have been added.

Breakable Target

A paper target with a printed bull's-eye is the best known rifle target, but most people like to see something happen when they hit a target—have it move or break. Breakable targets can be readily made by sawing a piece of 2" x 2" lumber into 2-inch lengths.

Nazarene Church Sunday School Attendance Upped

Reverend D. C. McKisson, of the Grace Nazarene church, announced this week that the Sunday school attendance has doubled since December 1 of last year, as have the morning and evening worship hours. Interest in the Sunday school was spurred by a contest between the local church and Palo Alto. Daly City was in the lead the whole time, so consequently the Palo Alto group will be entertaining Daly City.

Only recently the church concluded a very successful week of evangelism with the young people. Susie Chiekenoff from Pasadena was speaker and Leo Collar of San Francisco, music director. Following the close of these services five young people were received into church membership.

Reverend D. C. McKisson, together with the help of the board of dierctors, has just purchased a church parsonage located at 498 Woodrow street. The pastor and his family will be moving within the next two weeks.

HI-LITES From Jefferson Union High School

by Carol Donaldson

The June graduating senior's play, "Big Hearted Herbert," held in the Jeff auditorium last Friday evening, proved very successful. Over four hundred tickets were sold. Bill Denton, Claire Allen, Jane Bernath, and Don Mohrweiss held the leading roles.

February 16 Mr. Stevens and his dance band put on an afternoon dance. Classes were dismissed at 1:30 so that students could attend. Contrary to the general procedure, the intermission lasted only five minutes. Since the dance was a success more may be held in the future.

Steven's band will also play for the next evening dance which will be held March 18. It will be a sock hop, and shoes are to be checked at the door. Both boys and girls will wear levis or khakis and shirts. Loud socks or argyles will be featured.

At a recent assembly Dot Cade was chosen head yell leader. This office was held by Dolores Seiler last term.

"At last," and "It's about time," were the general comments of the juniors who have been anxiously awaiting the arrival of their class rings. In the past, rings have only been obtainable by seniors, but this year the custom was changed and they are now to be called "class rings."

On the agenda for outside activity is an ice hockey game to be attended by the Spanish Club, the C.S.F. and the Latin Club on March 12. The members are allowed to bring guests.

San Bruno National Guard Unit Is Organized

Battery B, 681st AAA Aw Bn (Mobile), California National Guard is no more. The unit has been redesignated Battery B, 149th AAA Aw Bn (Self Propelled). As such the entire battalion is assigned to the 49th Infantry Division, commanded by Major General J. J. Calkins Jr.

The change of unit classification from mobile to self propelled means new weapons for the firing battery including half track and full track vehicles.

Vacancies in the unit exist in many fields such as cooks, drivers, mechanics and artillerymen. Experienced men as well as men wanting to learn are welcome to inquire at the San Bruno Navy Base, JUno 8-5056, where M/Sgt. John S. Klingler and Sgt. Ward E. ## Suggest Cut For Welfare Departm't.

San Mateo county's $3,599,555 health and welfare departmental budget for the coming fiscal year was under fire last week by the county grand jury and the health and welfare committee. A suggestion that it be cut 10 per cent was made.

Most of the budget is used for welfare according to aids in the department. They also said that during the last fiscal year when the budget totalled $3,599,555, 53 per cent of this amount was derived from county taxes and the remainder from subventions, fees and other revenue.

Storage of Dahlias

A cellar that will keep potatoes in good condition is a good place to store dahlia tubers. Dahlia storage needs a rather high humidity and temperatures of 40 to 50 are desirable. Many place them in shallow boxes and cover them with sand and then place in cool storage.

Here's a Pretty Cake and Very Tasty, Too

HOW MANY TIMES have you feasted your eyes on a beautiful cake or salad and said, "Goodness, that's just too pretty to eat"? Well, here's another tempting one to add to the list—a luscious Pumpkin Cake. And we'll wager, pretty as it is, you will be more satisfied with a generous portion—or two, or three. Here is the recipe:

Pumpkin Cake Dessert

½ cup Nucoa margarine
1 cup brown sugar
½ cup white sugar
2 eggs
¾ cup strained cooked pumpkin
½ cup sour milk
1¾ cups sifted flour
¼ teaspoon soda
4 teaspoons baking powder
¼ teaspoon salt
½ teaspoon nutmeg
¼ teaspoon cinnamon
½ teaspoon ginger
½ cup chopped walnuts
1 cup heavy cream, whipped
Whole English walnut halves

Cream Nucoa and sugars together until light. Beat eggs and stir in pumpkin and sour milk. Sift flour with soda, baking powder, salt and spices. Add flour and pumpkin mixtures alternately to creamed Nucoa, beating after each addition. Pour into a greased and wax paper lined 9-inch square baking pan. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375° F.) 40 50 minutes. Remove from pan and cool on rack. When cool, spread with sweetened whipped cream and dot with walnut kernels. Yield: one 9-inch cake.

Wheat jointworm, ranking next to Hessian fly as causing heavy losses to the wheat crop, was present in many fields this past season. The areas most heavily infested were southern Illinois, central and southern Indiana, southwestern Ohio, Kentucky, and several localities in Missouri. # Woodrow Wilson PTA News Column

The Woodrow Wilson P.T.A.'s Mardi Gras surpassed all expectations, according to Mrs. Emil Bertelli and Mrs. Henry Adami, chairmen of the event.

One of the most novel events of the day was the amateur show in which children of the Woodrow Wilson school sang, danced, played various instruments and recited poetry.

Winning the very close contest was Gary McFall, son of Mr. and Mrs. John E. McFall of 80 Mission Circle. Gary, an eighth grade pupil, played a piano solo with ease and poise. His selection was "Theme From the Warshaw Concerto" by Addinsell.

Gary started his musical "career" four years ago with his mother instructing him. "For a long time my folks forced me to practice and now they can't get me to stop beating the ivories," was Gary's comment.

As winner of the contest, the young pianist will appear on the Buda Marin Dell amateur hour March 19.

Other portions of the Mardi Gras were as successful as the amateur show, with every booth being well patronized. All work for the bazaar was voluntary, with parents and teachers and others interested in the Parent-Teacher Association donating generously.

Woodrow Wilson P.T.A. executive board will meet at 1 p.m. Tuesday, March 8, at 449 Willits street. Mrs. M. Johnson will be hostess, with Mrs. Al North as co-hostess.

The room mothers' meeting will be held Wednesday, March 9, at 439 Willits street, with Mrs. Al North as hostess and Mesdames J. Emerson, J. Hutchins and S. Larson as co-hostesses.

Between the hours of 12:50 a.m. and 8:52 a.m. last Saturday morning, the Daly City Billiard Parlor, 6380 Mission street, was burglarized. According to police, McClanahan, an employee, closed the business at 12:50 a.m. and when Ken Bassler, proprietor, arrived to open for the day he found the front door partly open. A towel had been placed on top of the door that held it open.

Barley First Food

In ancient Greece it was traditionally believed that barley was the first form of food given to mankind by the gods, and most botanists and geologists seem to agree that barley was one of the first plants to be cultivated. In the valley of the Tigris and Euphrates and the Nile ancient straw-lined barley storage pits have been found by archeologists who have dated them tentatively about 20,000 years of age.

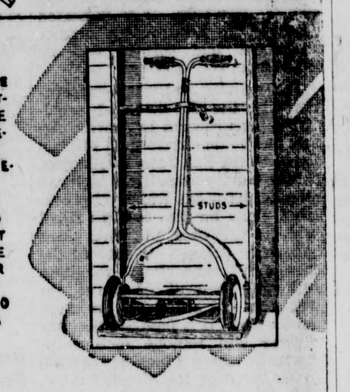
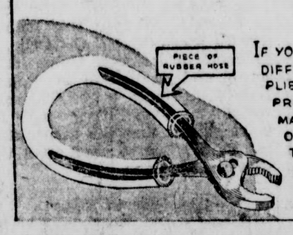
LAWNMOWERS SEEM TO BE A FAVORITE TARGET FOR PETTY THIEVES WHEN THE GARAGE DOOR IS LEFT OPEN. FOR SAFEKEEPING YOUR LAWNMOWER CAN BE LOCKED SECURELY BETWEEN TWO STUDS IN THE GARAGE, AS ILLUSTRATED. A FRAME BETWEEN THE STUDS AT THE BOTTOM EXTENDS OUT FAR ENOUGH TO ACCOMODATE THE MOWER, WHILE ANOTHER PIECE IS NAILED BETWEEN THE STUDS AND NOTCHED TO TAKE THE HANDLE WHICH IS HELD IN PLACE BY A HASP AND PADLOCK.





IF YOU HAVE EVER ENCOUNTERED THE DIFFICULTY OF TRYING TO MANEUVER A PLIERS WITH ONE HAND, YOU WILL APPRECIATE THIS SIMPLE DEVICE TO MAKE THINGS EASIER. A SHORT PIECE OF HOSE SLIPPED OVER THE HANDLES TENDS TO KEEP THE JAWS OPEN WHEN THE PLIERS ARE NOT GRIPPED SO THAT THEY CAN BE MANIPULATED EASILY.

Mr. Fido's Dream House

BY VIOLET M. ROBERTS

EVEN a doghouse can be a dream house and what's wrong with letting Fido himself supply the plans? Of course, Fido's touch will simply be his profile, carved or cut out of a board and fastened to the house itself.

Chances are good that Fido will pose while you make a sketch of his head. He's sure to have a "doggy" profile, no matter what kind of a dog he is. The silhouette drawings in the illustration will give you an idea of what to draw.

Measure the distance from A to B (as shown in the illustration). This includes ample room for the dog's head decoration.

Take two boards this length and wide enough for your sketch. Another point: Keep the size of your sketch in keeping with the size of the doghouse. Too small a head doesn't look good.

Now trace your sketch on the boards and cut them out with a coping saw. Nail them in place on the front of the doghouse as shown in the illustration and paint them a bright color. The eyes can be made in black or white, depending on the paint you use.

You may add similar decorations to the back of the doghouse.

Whether Mr. Fido himself notices the decorations or not, he'll appreciate having a nice, well-kept home of his own and an attractive doghouse adds much to the appearance of a back yard. It

Wrong Blunder

Instructor Burnswiddle was explaining economics to his high school class.

"In a democracy such as ours," he explained, "competition is the life of the nation. It holds down prices and spurs everyone to do his best. On the other hand, some governments endorse monopolies, in which certain services or commodities are controlled by single individuals or groups. Prices are high and there's no incentive for good work—"

The instructor paused, noting that one of the class was not paying attention.

"Benny," he asked, "can you tell what I was talking about?"

"Monotony," said Benny.

Local Boy Is Basketball Star

Local boy does darn good! That's the case of Ted Prescott, of Daly City, who is attending San Mateo Junior college. He is a member of the San Mateo Junior College's basketball team and, in last week's game against the Menlo Oaks, Prescott turned in the best performance of his career both on offense and defense.

However, San Mateo lost to the Oaks 50-43 with Prescott sinking six field goals and three foul shots. Good shooting, Prescott!

Jeff Pitchers Have No Hitter

The Jefferson varsity in their first practice game edged out the Washington Eagles of San Francisco 4 to 3 in a no-hit thriller for the Indians.

Bob Lynch, Ed Cereghino, and Henry Morgan divided the glory with Lynch allowing the three runs for the city boys on walks.

Everything clicked wonderfully except for the hitting (game average of .181). This is the momentary worry of Coach Glenn South. The defense was errorless and well coordinated.

The pitching relieved the heavy brow of Mr. South, as the pitchers made a good showing. Let's hope they keep it up.

Hank Morgan, who was credited with the win, also drove in Don Woll with a double in the last of the 6th for the winning run. John Matzek, John Olcese and Don Woll also each received a hit.

The pitching trio struck out 14 of the 21 batters.

Pointing out that extension of the 14 bus terminus from Mission street and San Jose avenue to San Pedro road would add ten minutes to each of 385 bus trips per day, and would cost an additional $350 per day, representatives of the San Francisco Municipal Railway on Monday announced that they do not plan to change the 14 bus terminal from its present location.

The announcement came at a meeting with Mayor Paul Green, Monday, after the city council had requested the municipal railway to extend 14 bus service to the south end of the city.

Railway officials called attention to the fact that some 14 buses, serving the cemetery area, already serve the lower end on a 20-minute regular schedule and a 16-minute peak schedule. In addition, they pointed out, 26 bus service, serving southern Daly City and Broadmoor, is being operated at 11-minute intervals.

The Daly City merchants had joined the council in requesting the extended service. Railway officials said there was not yet sufficient population in southern Daly City to warrant additional bus service. However, they indicated that as the need arises further equipment and service will be added from time to time.

The railway promised cooperation with the city council in expediting construction of traffic signals and channelization on Mission street at the San Jose, Wellington, Hillcrest drive area. State highway officials have set traffic improvement plans for the 1949-50 fiscal year for this area, but final plans have been delayed because of the change in transportation facilities. Although removal of street car tracks is not scheduled for more than a year, it is possible that the railway will remove sections of the track where it may be required to make room for channelization of traffic.

A change in running time on the 14 bus line has been necessary, it was announced by R. W. Cooley of the S.F. Municipal Railway Tuesday. Express buses to the Ferry Building, which formerly operated on a 37-minute schedule, now take 40 and one-half minutes. The local buses, formerly running at 42 and 33 and one-half minutes, now schedule the trip at 47 and 36 minutes.

Cooley reminded bus patrons that the express buses have a sign in the lower right hand windshield area, with red letters on a white background. Signs on local buses have black letters on a white background.

The local buses travel through the Mission District and take longer. Those patrons wishing to proceed downtown at the fastest speed should wait for the express buses with the red signs.

Number 26 buses also operate express to 12th and Market, Cooley said.

Dealers Offer Good Used Cars At Low Prices Now But Rise In Price Is Expected Soon

Used cars in good condition are plentiful here and are selling at the lowest prices in years, but prices will go up in the next month or so.

This is the conclusion drawn from a survey made this week among leading local dealers.

It's a buyers' market again. Dealers are putting more money into reconditioning used cars than they have in ages past, including overhauling motors and transmissions, new paint jobs, and new seat covers, on automobiles that need it.

"However, it is remarkable that so many one-owner cars are coming in that do not need reconditioning of any kind," one dealer said.

"These cars are salable as is, with the original paint, upholstery, and motors. We are happy to give guarantees on most of the automobiles we sell these days," he added.

Most automobile companies agreed that they are offering used cars at lower prices now than a year ago, despite the general increase in the cost of living since then.

The best time to buy a used car is now. Present trends definitely indicate a seasonal rise in price on all models. Dealers have cut profit margins considerably in an effort to turn over enough money to stay in business.

Any Rental Taxable Says Rev. Bureau

(Editor's Note) These income tax articles have been prepared by Collector of Internal Revenue James G. Smyth of the First California District to outline changes in the new tax laws. Each article is complete in itself. Watch for these stories in the Daly City Record. Clip and save them! They may provide the answers to your income tax problems.

Profits received from any rental are taxable, whether it be an entire building you own for rental purposes, or a room in your home that you rent for "pin money."

Certain deductible expenses may be applied against the rent you receive. Anyone receiving incomes from rentals must use the Form 1040 to report their tax liability. On this form are three schedules designed to assist in determining the profit or loss from rental income. They are: Schedule B, Schedule F, and Schedule G.

Schedule B lists the total amount of rent received, less the deductible items. This reports the net taxable amount to be added to other income.

Schedule F reports depreciation on rental property.

Schedule G is the place for itemizing allowable expenses incurred in renting property.

In setting up a depreciation schedule on rental property it is well to bear in mind that only the building, not the land, carries depreciation.

A taxpayer may have purchased a home for $9,500 in 1935. The value of the house was $8,000. This is the amount on which depresciation may be recovered.

To establish the amount of depreciation, use Schedule F on Page 2 of Form 1040; first, the building is identified as a frame dwelling. Next, the date of purchase: 1935. The cost to be recovered is $8,000. As the assets are not fully depreciated a zero is put in the next column; in column five, the depreciation recovered in prior years, $2,600, is set down; column six, shows the remaining cost to be recovered; column seven, shows the amount of time over which the cost recovery is to be made. This taxpayer has given his building a 40 year life. This means that 2½% of the $8,000 may be recovered every year. This amount, $200, is deductible from the rental income.

A taxpayer may select a different period of time for cost recovery on rental property. Generally, the Internal Revenue will not alter or change any reasonable time recovery period. Usually, rental properties may be given a cost recovery period, from 25 to 50 years, depending on what the taxpayer believes to be the useful life of his buliding. For example: apartment buildings and equipment, two per cent to three per cent a year. Frame houses, three to four per cent a year. Brick dwellings and the like, two to three per cent a year.

When apartments and dwelling houses are rented furnished, 10% a year is usually allowed for the depreciation of home furnishings.

Repairs may also be charged against rental income. These include anything to maintain the building in good condition, such as painting and redecorating.

Expenses to enlarge or improve the property are not considered repairs.

Schedule G is the place to list and explain all expenses, except depreciation to be charged off against rental income.

Schedule B in addition to listing incomes from rents, also lists incomes from royalties.

Incomes from royalties may be obtained from the sale of books, music, copyrights, patents, trade marks, formulas and natural resources under lease.

Income produced by patents and copyrights is considered taxable. A depreciation allowance can be taken against royalties. This depreciation must be computed according to the following rules: Copyrights, under our law, endure for 28 years from the date of first publication. Under certain circumstances they may be renewed for United States Patent is 17 years.

The cost, or other basis of a patent or copyright should be divided by the number of years of its life. If the patent or copyright has been purchased, the depreciation is computed by dividing the cost by the number of years which the patent or copyright has left to run.

Property which produces coal, gas, oil, copper, timber or other similar products, may return income in the form of royalties.

Cow Palace Loses Fund Increase Try

A bill introduced by Assemblyman Thomas Maloney (R), San Francisco, to increase the Cow Palace annual state appropriations was voted down last week by the Western Fairs association. The bill called for an increase of from $100,000 to $250,000. Association delegates voted 50 to 2 against supporting the bill.

Twelve highway stations were manned by trained Red Cross volunteer workers during the year 1948 and gave First Aid treatment to 62 people in 56 accidents. GIVE TO THE RED CROSS.

PASSENGER CARS IN THE UNITED STATES

At the end of 1948 a total of 33,351,000 passenger cars were in use in the United States, reports the National Automobile Club. This figure represents an increase of 8 per cent over that for 1947 and an increase of 12.5 per cent over that for 1941.

While California added 636,000 passenger cars to show the highest numerical increase, Texas came second with an increase of 324,000.

KEEP LENSES CLEAR

Accumulated raindrops on automobile headlight lenses tend to reduce efficiency of the lights by diffusing the light rays, says the California State Automobile Association, which recommends wiping the headlight lenses with a cloth moistened with glycerine to prevent raindrops from collecting on the surface.

A mariner who was versed in navigation in the olden days when the practice of the science was considered an accomplishment was called an artist.

The modern use of the word "cumshaw" is said to be derived from the Chinese; a beggar's term meaning alms.

Veterans Weekly News Column

More than 148,000 California veterans are presently in school or job training under the G-I Bill or Public Law 16, Veterans Administration reports.

VA records show that approximately 273,000 California veterans have terminated their training or schooling. The vast majority are believed to have completed their training under the G-I Bill.

Of those terminating their training only 2,311 were dropped from the G-I Bill program because their entitlement was exhausted. VA lists 4,249 of the terminations as disabled veterans who completed their training and rehabilitation under Public Law 16.

Question: I am an honorably discharged World War II veteran. At present, I am in prison for a minor offense. May I receive a correspondence course under the provisions of the G-I Bill?

Answer: Yes. The Veterans Administration makes contracts with approved schools and will pay for accredited courses, but no subsistence allowance will be paid.

Question: I am a World War I veteran and have been working out my income tax report. Do I have to how my compensation from VA?

Answer: Disability compensation is exempt from federal income tax. However, this is a matter within the jurisdiction of the Internal Revenue Bureau.

Question: I would like to know why the pension I had been receiving under the law is now called compensation?

Answer: Public Law 494, 79th Congress, provided that the term "compensation" be applied to all service-connected disability or death benefits paid through Veterans Administration.

Question: What income limitation provision is attached to the pension I will get as the widow of a soldier who died in a Japanese prison?

Answer: No income provisions are applicable to compensation payable for service-connected death.

BE SMART

There's a vast difference between smart driving and "Smarty" driving, points out the California State Automobile Association. The smart driver sees possible accidents in the making; the "Smarty" driver makes accidents possible by his actions.

THINGS THAT INJURE

There's such wisdom in the ancient saying, "Things that injure teach," but unfortunately many injuries in highway accidents are so serious that the lesson is lost, observes the California State Automobile Association, in urging careful walking and careful driving in traffic.

PROPER MARGARINE MIXING METHOD ANNOUNCED

The Best Foods, Inc., maker of Nucoa margarine, advises homemakers that — until Congress repeals the law prohibiting the coloring of margarine in the churn—the easiest, quickest and best way to add the yellow tint at home is by the "bowl mix" method — and two pounds at a time.

Actual speed tests have proved that the fastest way to perform the coloring operation evenly is to put the white margarine into a bowl, allow it to soften to room temperature — about right for easy sandwich spreading — then, with a fork or kitchen spoon, cream in the contents of the pure color wafer. In a matter of seconds the task is accomplished, without streaks or blotchess, and the margarine is ready to mold as desired for convenience in serving. The time saving is doubled by coloring two pounds of the spread at one time.

There's money to be saved as well by the "bowl mix" method, for trick packages such as squeeze bags add to the price the grocer must charge for margarine. So, until the law permits the coloring of margarine in the churn, and without the now-imposed tax of ten cents per pound, the makers of Nucoa margarine refuse to add even a penny to the cost of their top-quality product.

When margarine is colored in the bowl there need not be a particle of waste. Some women leave a little of the spread in the bowl when placing most of it in the mold. In this remaining portion they mix a bit of chopped parsley or chives, making a fine seasoning for boiled potatoes, cauliflower or carrots.

This week Daly City grocers are featuring "Eat High, Spend Low with nutritious Nucoa" and are offering a special price to consumers who purchase two pounds at a time, to color in a single operation by the bowl mix method.

DON'T OBSTRUCT VIEW

Loading of an automobile with goods or passengers in such a manner as to obstruct the driver's view to the front or sides is prohibited by the Vehicle Code, says the California State Automobile Association. This safety provision also applies to loading a vehicle in such a manner as to interfere with the driver's control over the operating mechanism.

The Women's Reserve of the United States Marine Corps was authorized by Congress in February 1943.

JEFFERSON HIGH GIRLS' SPORTS

By Claire Allen

Beverly Stein was selected by the Jeff gym teachers as the outstanding girl athlete for the fall semester. She was also one of three girls to receive her 250-point gold charm. The other two girls are Dorothy Hacker and Claire Allen. This charm may be obtained by going out for enough sports to achieve the goal of 250 points.

The outstanding girl athlete for the spring season will be selected later in the term. From these two will be chosen the girl to have her name inscribed on the cup in the trophy case.

The home nursing course will be over in two weeks with a final test. The girls are learning everything from taking temperatures to dieting. They also keep a notebook which summarizes all their classwork.

Miss Young is still busy with her girls who are passing their basketball official's tests. The referees and officials will be Nancy Schreiber, Shirley Van Vliet, Ann Allen, Louise Chessman, Pat Hosking, and Dolores Dillaboy. The girls practice in gym by refereeing or umpiring the basketball games. The course will last until the end of the semester when the girls will take their tests and be able to use their knowledge again next year.

SWIMMING NEWS

Life saving and water safety instructor courses are now over. The boys who passed the life saving tests were Bill Evans Jr., Ed Selsor Jr., Stanley Davis Jr., Scott Hickman Jr., Ed Galindo Jr., Lloyd Isdahl Jr., Bob Kalinin Jr., and Milton Tromborg Jr. The instructor's list of passing students hasn't been handed in as yet, but it will be recorded in next week's edition.

The pool will be open to the public Tuesday, March 4, in the evening beginning at 7:30. The price is 35 cents with student body cards and 50 cents for outsiders. Wednesday night is reserved for ladies. The pool will also be open Saturday afternoon for everyone.

Celebrates Birthday

Joyce McKisson, daughter of Reverend and Mrs. D. C. McKisson, of the Grace Nazarene church, celebrated her 13th birthday last Friday with a group of 40 people. Mr. and Mrs. Ebert Burton were in charge of the evening's entertainment.

HOW MUCH IS ONE RESCUE WORTH?

A tiny hand above the water. Then slowly, slowly it sinks. But there is time—still time—if only someone is near, someone who knows what to do. A twelve-year-old boy, a woman, an old man—anyone, if only he knows.

And the wonderful thing is that there are millions who do know what to do and how to do it. Last year alone, you—through your Red Cross—made it possible to train more than a half-million people in water safety. Another 55,000 were trained and qualified as instructors in water safety and first aid. It is estimated that 17,000,000 have had training in first aid and water safety through your Red Cross.

Many of these people are able to save human life—priceless human life. How much is this ability worth? It's hard to say—unless it is someone you love who has been rescued.

Your contributions to your Red Cross can help carry on this training program, help take it to new areas that need it. Give now—it may save a life sooner than you think.

You, too, can help through Your

SAN MATEO JAYSEE NOTES

President Charles S. Morris and a number of the San Mateo Junior College instructors attended the 20th annual convention of the American Association of Junior Colleges at the Hotel Fairmont, San Francisco, which ended the series of meetings Sunday. President Morris is a member of the board of directors of the association. The junior college a cappella choir, directed by Fredric Roehr of the faculty, sang before the gathering Saturday morning.

Freshman coeds were welcomed to the junior college by a luncheon given by the members of the Associated Women Students. The Men's Club is planning a smoker program to welcome the new men students to the college.

Junior College students who are enrolled in the radio classes are planning the presenting of class programs over the two San Mateo radio stations, KVSM and KSMO. The classes started doing radio broadcasting last year.

Initial rehearsals of the term play, "Our Hearts Were Young and Gay," are under way with a full cast learning lines.

The college baseball team goes to prison Saturday as the nine will play San Quentin there! Wet weather has held up practice for track and baseball men but the tennis squad practices every time it can sweep the water off the courts.

Dr. Carl Landauer of the University of California faculty will talk on "Positive Alternatives to Communism" at the meeting of the Peninsula UNESCO Forum at the junior college Monday evening. A week later, March 14, Paul Travis, world traveler, author and photographer, will give an illustrated lecture on "Greece and Italy —Past and Present" at Community Hall. Both lectures are free to the public; the UNESCO lecture starts at 7:45, and the March 14 program at 7:30 o'clock in the evening.

HEADLIGHT ADJUSTMENT

Automobile headlights should be adjusted with a normal load in front and back seats in order to assure proper adjustment under normal driving conditions, advises the California State Automobile Association. Extra passengers in the rear seat or heavy baggage in the trunk may cause the headlights to tilt upward beyond the safety range.

SAFETY ZONE CAUTION

The presence of a safety zone for pedestrians at street car stops, wide street intersections, or elsewhere does not give the motorist the right to travel past such points at undiminished speeds, cautions the National Automobile Club. The rule that he may pass without coming to a halt is modified by the requirement that the car shall proceed only at such speed as permits full control of it by the driver in the face of any exigency that may arise.

A total of 1290 gift boxes for children in foreign countries were filled by members of the Junior Red Cross during the past year. GIVE TO THE RED CROSS.

Buy a dependable used car. Read the Used Car Bargain Counter in this issue.

Do Not Refrigerate

Sweet potatoes and bananas never should be kept in the refrigerator.

A Galloping Genie

Modern genie known to steelmen as the continuous rolling mill usually picks up slabs of steel at a speed of four and a half miles an hour. Less than two minutes later it reels them off in the form of ribbons at 20 to 25 miles an hour. Higher speeds are frequently attained, however, and the type of steel sheet that ends up as tin cans has been known to travel a mile a minute.

Local dealers have less overhead. Buy your used car from the leading dealers in this community, those who advertise in the Used Car Bargain Counter.

First Packer

First meat packing house in the United States was founded in 1641 by William Pynchon, at Springfield, Mass. Pynchon's plant packed pork in salt for shipment to the West Indies.

Deer Feeding

Nearly 1,000 tons of alfalfa hay and concentrated deer food were distributed in Wisconsin's deer yards during 1947 to feed an estimated number of only 23,000 deer. The cost of this operation $72,090, along with the required payment of deer damage claims amounting to over $55,000 in 1947, has brought about the general concession by game biologists that deer feeding is a waste of effort and money.

Lifesaving, instructor and instructor refresher classes were conducted by the San Mateo County Chapter, American Red Cross during 1948. GIVE TO THE RED CROSS.

Many Daly City Families Helped By Red Cross During Past Year

Two hundred and thirty families were helped by the Home Service Department of the Red Cross in Daly City in the past year, according to an announcement by Mrs. Barney Bristow, home service chairman of the San Mateo County Chapter of the Red Cross.

Illustrating the service is a cas described by Mrs. Bristow involving the family of Corporal "W. M." His wife and four children were flooded out of Vanport, Oregon. After being helped with emergency care by the Red Cross in Portland, the Chapter worker learned from Mrs. W. M." that with the destruction of her home, she had no ties and no place to live in Portland and wished to be near her husband, who was stationed with a local unit of the Air Force.

The Disaster Worker telegraphed the San Mateo Red Cross Chapter, which provided transportation, located housing, and paid the first month's rent, and also purchased furniture and a month's supply of groceries for the family.

Thanks to the Red Cross, today the family are happy members of our community.

Mrs. Bristow stated that such service is an every day occurrence in the operation of the Home Service Department, but because of the confidential nature of the Red Cross, such incidents cannot always be made public.

More than two million persons were engaged in domestic service in 1940, according to a Twentieth Century Fund Survey.

Thirty-two Red Cross workers gave 1928 hours of service to Home Service work alone in San Mateo county during the past year. GIVE TO THE RED CROSS.

Hosts and hostesses for the evening were Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Krumpe, Mr. and Mrs. Barry Binns, and Mr. and Mrs. Jack Clifton.

A ship changed a river's name. The Oregon River's name was changed to that of Columbia River in honor of USS Columbia when that vessel called there in 1788 while on her famous voyage around the world.

Kites And Electricity Don't Mix

The coming of spring and the spanking breezes that give wing to thousands of kites brought an annual warning from Pacific Gas and Electric Company today and a list of kite-flying "DON'TS" designed to safeguard life and property.

Kites and power lines don't mix, the Company warned, without injury, sometimes fatal, and serious property damage.

P. G. and E.'s code for safe kite flying follows:

1. DON'T fly a kite near electric or trolley wires.
2. DON'T climb a pole to untangle a kite.
3. DON'T let a kite go over radio aerials.
4. DON'T build or buy a kite with metal or wire in the frame or tail.
5. DON'T use tinsel string, wire, or any kind of twine that has a metallic substance. Use plain cotton or linen cord.
6. DON'T run across streets or highways while flying kites.
7. DON'T touch fallen electric wires. Report them immediately to P. G. and E.
8. DON'T fly a kite when it is raining. A wet string is a conductor of electricity.
